We are expecting a large turnout for this reunion based on the responses we have had. The reunion committee has worked hard to put together a wonderful weekend for you. The dress is casual and the price is reasonable because we have had many generous donations from classmates. We have also had donations given to us to be used for anyone who is unable to purchase tickets. Please let any reunion committee member know confidentially if you need to access those donations.

We look forward to seeing everyone October 27 and 28!
